WILL OF A PENNSYLVANIAN DIS-TRIBUTES A VAST ESTATE.

Two Princely Donations to Charity Were Made After Tossing Bequests of Tens of Thousands of Dollars Right and Left.

There are a lot of people in Delaware county, Pa., who don't have to go to the Klondike, They have struck it rich enough in the will of the late J. Lewis Crozer, a copy of which was filed yesterday in the office of Recorder Queal, Under the law a copy of the will of a non-resident bequeathing property in Jackson county must be in the office of the recorder here.

Mr. Crozer's will disposed of an immens estate, running up into the millions. Tens of thousands of dollars are bequeathed as nonchalantly as if those sums were mere nominal bequests. Two princely charitable donations are made. Mr. Crozer first devises a vast amount of real and personal property to his wife, with whom, in the affectionate language of the will, he "lived a happy married life for more than thirtysix years, and who was a faithful, devoted and loving companion." His mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary A. Stotesbury, is given an an-Mrs. Mary A. Stotesbury, is given an an-nuity of $1,500. His brother-in-law, J. M. Stotesbury, is given $30,000. His nephew by marriage. All the rest of the estate is left in trust to the Crozer Theological seminary, but during the life of the widow she shall nave an annual income of $29,000. At her death $250,000 of the estate is to be used in building a library for the Crozer Theological seminary, and $500,000 is to be used for building and endowing a Home for Incurables and Homeopathic college combined. After these two noble bequeats have been carried out, the rest of the trust estate is to be divided into five parts, of which the Crozer Theological seminary gets two, and the American Baptist Home Mission Society, the American Baptist Home Mission Society and the American Baptist Missionary Union get one each.

There is only a small portion of the estate in Jackson county.

HONORED HIS MEMORY.

Prominent Attorneys Spenk in Affectionate Terms of the Late J. L. Grider.

The Kansas City bar held a memorial meeting yesterday morning in honor of the late J. L. Grider, who died at the Sisters' hospital Wednesday morning. J. F. Grider hospital Wednesday morning. J. F. Grider was one of the most promising young attorneys of the Kansas City bar, and many feeling tributes were paid to his memory by prominent attorneys.

Judge J. McD. Trimble presided at the meeting. Major William Warner paid a high tribute to Mr. Grider, whom he characterized as a brilliant young attorney.

"When Judge L. Grider died," said Major Warner, "he sank into a dreamless slumber that will have its awakening in the land prepared for the blessed of the earth, for one of his most striking characteristics was his love for his fellow man."

Hon. John L. Peak, ex-United States minister to Switzerland, declared that, in the death of Mr. Grider, the Kansas City bar had lost one of its brightest and most eloquent members.

bar had lost one of its brightest and most eloquent members.

Feeling tributes in a similar vein were paid by C. S. Palmer, S. B. Ladd, J. C. Swift, Frank H. Dexter, J. A. Guthrie, Thomas George and W. L. Stocking.

A committee of five was appointed to draw up resolutions to be spread upon the records of the court and sent to Mr. Grider's mother. This committee is composed of Frank H. Dexter, W. L. Stocking, T. A. Witten, S. B. Ladd and Judge James Gibson.

TAMMANY WINS AGAIN.

Sachem Gannon Discharged and There Was a Lot of Revelry at Night. "Tammany Hall" scored a victory in Justice Walls' court yesterday morning, and it was celebrated in befitting style at the rendezvous of the tigers near Sheffield last night. Grand Sachem J. W. Gannon, the leader of "Tammany," was discharged by Justice Walls. He had been charged with stealing $5 from Thomas King, a weary-footed mechanic who had partaken of the proffered hospitality of the members of notorious "Tammany" Tuesday night, and had furnished the wherewithal for a can of beer. All "Tammany" was in court-twelve hoboes strong. When the hour for the trial came, King failed to put in an appearance. There was a knowing smile on the bleared faces of the defendant and his witnesses. The suggestion that King had received word that another section of the country was more healthy than that in the vicinity of Kansas City and Sheffield metwith popular favor.

So "Tammany Hall" rushed the can last night as never before.

When they were let into the corridor for exercise yesterday morning the two men quarreled over a plate. Korn followed Moran into the bathroom and continued the quarrel, which was brought to a summary close by Moran hurling the plate at Korn. The men engaged in a desperate scuffle until separated by Tom Hyland, who is under indictment for murder.

R. H. Kennon, a blind musician who is led about the streets by a hound, was in Justice Walls' court yesterday as plaintiff in a suit against the Heckle Bros,' Cutlery Company for $300 damages. He claimed that a dog belonging to the firm had bitten that a dog belonging to the firm had bitten him. Kennon brought the suit as a poor person, and consequently did not deposit the costs in the case. Yesterday morning during the trial Kennon stated that his home was in Galveston, Tex., and that he spent only the summer months in Kansas City. The attorney for the defense took advantage of this statement and had the case dismissed on the grounds that as Ken-non was a non-resident he could not bring suit under any circumstances without first suit under any circumstances without first depositing the costs in the case. Kennon is said to have considerable property.

THROWN OUT OF COURT. State's Evidence Against the Men Arrested for Taking Conductor Copeland's Diamond Was Flimsy.

Ed Sylvis was acquitted by order of Judge Wofford yesterday of the charge of fraud-ulent conversion of property, the property involved being a diamond belonging to Conductor C. G. Copeland, who had such a close call in the Wabash wreek at Missouri City. Sylvis and John Fisher were arrested at Liberty on the charge of grand larceny and are so booked at the county jail. When the case came to trial, however, the charge was changed to fraudulent conversion of property.

When the cases were called yesterday, the defendants demanded a severance and Sylvis' trial was first called. At the close of the state's evidence Judge Wofford directed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty. The state then dismissed the case against Fisher.

Fisher.

Sylvis and Fisher found a diamond in the debris of the wreck. They made no secret of it. When Conductor Copeland saw the diamond, according to Prosecutor Lowe, he claimed that his diamond had been switched for a cheaper stone. There was no evidence produced, however, to show that Sylvis was concerned in this, or that it occurred in this county, and so he was promptly acquitted and discharged.

DEPOT COMPANY AFTER RENT.

Suit Against the Rock Island Brought Here From St. Joseph for Convenience. Before Judge Philips, in the federal court yesterday, the case of the St. Joseph Union Depot Company against the Rock Island Railroad Company was tried. The case was brought from St. Joseph here for conwas brought from St. Joseph here for convenience. The depot company wants to recover about $14,000 from the Rock Island for rentals claimed by the company against the old Chicago, Kansas & Nebraska road that is now a part of the Rock Island. The Rock Island claims that its rental is all that is required as it has absorbed that road and that double rental cannot be collected; also that the contract with the old Chicago, Kansas & Nebraska was violated by the failure of the depot company to rebuild within the six months' limit after the structure was destroyed by fire. It is an interesting point for railroads and is being stubbornly contested.

Hogan Held for Assault.

Jerry Hogan, the ex-policeman who assaulted Patrolman J. B. Estes with a knife while resisting arrest Wednesday night, was yesterday arraigned before Justice Krueger. He pleaded guilty and furnished $750 bond for his appearance October 8. Estes was unable to appear in court and Officer H. G. Moulder filed the complaint against Hogan. W. S. Campbell and J. J. Foster went on Hogan's bond. The charge is felonious assault.

Called Him a Red-Headed Fool.

Fred Taylor, minor husband, by his guardian, yesterday filed a motion in the circuit court at Independence, asking that the allowance of alimony to Violet Taylor pending divorce proceedings be reduced from $10 to $5 per week. It is stated the defendant's salary is but $8 per week. A crossbill, alleging that Mrs. Taylor called her husband a "red-headed fool" was also filed yesterday.

Hudspeth Pleads Self-Defense.

An answer was filed yesterday in the circuit court at Independence in the damage suit of Helen Kesner against J. L. Hudspeth, who killed her husband at Lake City several months ago. The answer admits the killing, but alleges that Kesner had a deadly weapon in his hand ready to throw at the defendant, who shot in self-defense, but with no intention of killing Kesner.

CABLE TALK COMES HIGH.

LITTLE BOOK ISSUED TELLING ALL ABOUT IT.

You May Cable London for 34 Cents Per Word, but It Costs $5.20 Per Word to Cape Verda Islands.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has just issued the first pamphlet regard-ing cable rates ever sent out to the patrons of the company in this city. Some very book, the chief feature being the cost of cable communication. Ordinary telegraphic service is sufficiently expensive, but gos-slping with friends in Asia, South Africa and such out-of-the-way places is too cost-ly for the average patron of 5 o'clock teas. The rates to the great civilized centers are comparatively cheap. It costs but 34 cents per word to cable to any point in Great Britain, Ireland, France and Germany, but if you want to tell some friend in Muscat Arabia, what is going on here, you mus pay $1.26 per word, and then pay a little matter of $17.63 boat hire from Jask, Persia. If you want to communicate with friends in Hue, Thuan-An and all offices via Salgon, China, it will cost $2.42 per

It costs $1.54 per word to cable to New South Wales, and $1.59 to Queensland, both the above via the Eastern or Indo route.

It costs $1.54 per word to cable to New South Wales, and $1.59 to Queensland, both the above via the Eastern or Indo route. By way of Siberia, it costs, respectively, $2.73 and $3.22 per word. It costs only $1.56 per word to talk to a wild man in Borneo, but it takes $4.11 to talk to the Canary islands via Aden.

The rate to Bulgaria and Eastern Roumelia is only $13 cents in addition to the London rate, while it takes $1.36 to talk to Burmah.

The highest rates for cable communication alone, exclusive of boat hire, is that to $1. Jago and $1. Vincent. Cape Verde islands, to which the rate is $5 and $5.20, respectively, for every word of the message. It takes $2.39 per word to talk to Corea, while it takes only 47 cents to talk to Greece and the adjacent islands. If you want to ask Queen Wilhelmina of Holland when she is going to ask somebody to be her husband it will cost but 41 cents per word. If you want to know what the emperor of Japan is going to do about it, you can send a message for $1.85 or $2.24 per word, according to route. The Siberian route is very expensive, being about twice the rates via the Eastern or Indo route. It costs but $1.61 to talk to New Zealand via the Eastern route, while it takes $3.34 per word via the Siberian.

It costs but $4 cents per word to talk to Norway, but it takes $2.44 per word to talk to the Philippine Islands and find out whether the rebellion is put down.

It costs from $6 to $6 cents per word to talk to European Turkey, and from 56 cents to $1 per word to talk to Aslatic Turkey. It costs only $7 to $9 cents per word to talk to any point in Spain, and it costs but $4 and $4 cents to talk to Aslatic Turkey. It costs only $7 to $9 cents per word to talk to any point in Spain, and it costs but $4 and $4 cents to talk to Servia and Sardinia respectively. It is only $6 cents per word to talk to hewest coast of Africa. The rate to the Cameroons is $2.40 per word, and the rates to various points on the west coast run from $1.45 to $2.83 per word via Cadiz or Lisbon, while th they win a victory and almost any point in the West Indies can be reached for $1 per word.

The rates to South and Central America are of interest, as the trade between those countries and the United States is constantly increasing. It costs 75 cents per word to talk to the capitals of Costa Rica, 50 cents to Guatemala, 65 cents to Honduras, 70 cents to Nicaragua and 60 cents to Salvador, all the above being by way of Galveston, the rate to which is 9 cents, but this rate has been added in the figures given above. It costs about 10 cents extra to reach interior points.

It costs $1 per word to talk to the Argentine Republic; from $1.35 to $1.75 per word to Brazil, and $1.25 to Bolivia. The rates to British Guiana are $4.04 per word, to Dutch Guiana $3.70 and to French Guiana $4.10 per word. It costs $1.25 to talk to Peru, $1 to Paraguay, $1.25 to Ecuador, 97 cents to Panama, $4.11 to Venezuela, $1 to Uruguay and from 97 cents to $1.14 to the United States of Colombia.

Here are some of the strict regulations

Every address must contain at least two words. Messages may be written in any larguage that can be expressed in Roman letters. They may be plain or secret language. Code words are not allowed if taken from any language other than English, German, French, Dutch, Italian, Portuguese and Latin. In plain messages words of fifteen letters or less are counted as one word, while words of overfiteen letters are counted as two words. In messages composed entirely of code words, each word is counted at the rate of ten letters to a word. In cipher messages each group of five figures is counted as a word. A sender of a message may pay for a reply up to thirty words.

Purchase of Cuba in Contemplation.

There is a rumor afloat in official circles that, if true, is most important. This is nothing less than that this government is about to make overtures to Spain for the purchase of Cuba. However this may be, it has long been known to the world at large that the value of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a remedy for constipation, malaria, dyspepsia, rheumatism, kidney complaint and nervousness is beyond all price. A wineglassful before meals imparts a henrity relish for the food, and a corresponding dose before retiring contributes to sound repose. No medicinal stimulant on the market ever received such strong professional indorsement as the Bitters. It is a most genial tonic, affording strength to all who use it. Not only in this country, but in many foreign lands, it is an admitted specific and preventive. As a safeguard against all disease of a malarial type it is particularly valuable. MR. BRYAN IN TOWN. Free Silver Advocate Spent Yesterday

Here En Route to

Wichita. William J. Bryan, of Lincoln, Neb., leader of the free silver forces of the country, was in Kansas City yesterday. He came in on the morning train direct from his home at Lincoln, Neb., and spent the day at the Midland hotel. Several friends called to see him, but made only short calls. He spent the morning in the Turkish bath rooms trying to get rid of a heavy cold, and took a long sleep afterwards. At o'clock he went to his room and for an hour was closeted with ex-Governor Crittenden, who told him many interesting things about the free silver of Mexico and how prosperous the people of that country were where the white metal is coined free and unlimited and circulates a long ways below par. Mr. Bryan expects to spend several weeks of the winter in Mexico, where he will gather some facts and try to stir them in with his financial theories so that he may have a new mixture for the delectation of the people who are still clinging to the white metal, believing it is the panacea for all financial and commercial ils. Incidentally it may afford him material for a new lecture that will extend his list of profitable engagements at the country fairs for next year.

Mr. Bryan was on his way to Wichita, where he will speak to-day at the fall gathering in that city. He said he had never been in Wichita, and was hopeful of finding is as handsome as it had been painted. He will no doubt be well pleased.

Colonel Crisp was one of Mr. Bryan's callers and spent a short time with him very agreeably. During the afternoon Mr. Bryan received a call from Charlie Adams, secretary of the old Bland Club that is to be reorganized as Robidoux's Bryan Guards. They talked the silver question over for an hour. Mr. Bryan was suffering from a severe cold contracted during his Jowa trip and for that reason kept as quiet as possible during the day. and unlimited and circulates a long ways

Bryant School Pupils Who Have Somehow or Other Absorbed Some Queer Ideas.

The pupils of Miss Ferrie's room at the Bryant school were reading in their Second reader, yesterday morning, the story of the poor old man and his two little grandchildren, who had little fire and were compelled to sit close together to keep warm. Superintendent Greenwood listened to the little folks recite the lesson and then took charge of the class. He asked what people burn in Kansas City to keep warm. The little fellows were very anxious to answer. Coal, wood, coal oil, gasoline, gas and steam were named. Mr. Greenwood then asked the little fellows to tell him what they thought made the days so hot. All answered it was the sun.

"What makes the sun hot?" he asked.

"The people in heaven are burning up the trash there," answered one boy vehemently. children, who had little fire and were commently.

This answer did not suit one little girl.

"That's where they are burning up the bad people, and that's what makes it so hot," was her earnest declaration.

The transfer was made at the request of Mr. Comstock and was indorsed by Postmaster Reed and Assistant Postmaster Seidlitz. Since Mr. Comstock had the grip several years ago he has had a troublesome cough that was aggravated because of the unhealthy location and surroundings of the office here. He had to ask for a vacation some weeks ago and went West. The climate at Sait Lake City proved very beneficial to him and he asked Postmaster Reed to indorse his application for a transfer. By the transfer Mr. W. N. Grant, of that office, will come to a position in the office here. Such transfers can be made under the civil service commission regulations.

Several times, he claims, he saw the lantern of Assistant Police Surgeon Norberg, who headed a searching party that was intent upon finding the escaped patient.

It is a new custom and a decidedly good one.

The railroad officials were obliged to do something to keep the Union station from being swamped with forgotten articles. By midsummer there was such a stock of umbrelias and handbags and parcels that all the surplus women in Boston could have been supplied had they been given out. It is amusing to see how many people have really forgotten something, but when they hear the warning they sheepishly gather things up and with a sly smile at the conductor sally forth chuckling, "Well, it's a good thing to call one's attention to one's belongings. One might have forgotten something."
